

RAM WELCOME

EXPERIENCE CSU

PARENTS AND FAMILIES

AUGUST 22-25, 2019

All new students and their families attend Ram Welcome: Experience CSU. Building on our conversations during Ram Orientation, parent and family programming during Ram Welcome focuses on the family impact of your student's transition to college, resources to support well-being in the CSU community, supporting student's academic success, and the celebration of your involvement in your student's college career. Students are expected to participate in all four days of Ram Welcome, but parent and family programming ends promptly at 12:45 p.m. on Friday, August 23, 2019.

PARENT AND FAMILY INTEREST PROGRAMS

All sessions occur Friday, August 23 from 9 a.m.-12:45 p.m.

Parent and Family Programs believes in supporting families with a variety of interest-area programs, building on the Ram Orientation experience. We hope you choose the programs that will best meet your needs. To best serve our attendees, we offer most programs more than once during the 9 a.m.-12:45 p.m. timeframe.

INTEREST-AREA PROGRAMS INCLUDE*:

The Ram Community – This session provides information about campus and community safety from the CSU Police Department.

Making the Transition: Getting Your Heart and Head Ready – This session, led by the Vice President for Student Affairs and the Dean of Students, is designed to assist parents and families in their own family members' transitions.

Your Student's Academic Transition: Starting Strong – In this session, learn more about how important you are in conversations about academics and the many resources your student can seek out for academic support.

Resilience 1.0: Challenges and Steps to Success – Whether your student is starting their first year or transferring, the session will explore some of the common challenges that can impact your student's satisfaction and success.

CSU Health Network – representatives will be able to answer questions about ways to support your student's health needs.

Thriving in College with Disabilities – In this session, learn more about the transition of responsibilities – from family members to students – and the skills necessary to foster success in the college environment.

Reframe: Thinking and Acting Differently to End Interpersonal Violence – This session will introduce parents and families to the ways the Reframe educates the campus community about consent, common myths, skills for bystander intervention, and how we can all feel empowered to take the action needed to make our campus a safer place for everyone.

A detailed schedule will be available as we get closer to the event – download the “Experience CSU” app and select the “Parent and Family Guide” to ensure you receive updated schedule information! Don’t have a smartphone? No problem, all Ram Welcome updates will be available on the Ram Welcome website (www.ramwelcome.colostate.edu) and a paper version of the event schedule will be available at move-in.

* Programs are subject to change. Detailed schedule will be available on the Experience CSU app and the Ram Welcome website.

Ram Welcome programming for parents and family members ends at 12:45 p.m. on August 23.
