APRIL SURVIVAL GUIDE
First 50 Days
First 50 Days includes programs that new students should attend from the first week of the semester. It is highly recommended that you plan on participating in these programs, as new students will lose the ability to learn about campus support and opportunities if they miss any of these important events. These events will become the new student’s foundation in the academic year. Make it a point to attend the events in the First 50 Days.
